

Croatia: Regional training seminars for national minority council members

Following the June elections for National Minority Councils, the Coalition for the Protection and Promotion of Human Rights organized 4 training seminars to help improve the effectiveness of these new institutions in promoting national minority participation in public life and the representation of minority interests, both locally and regionally. More seminars are planned for 2008.

For further information contact: Ljubomir Mikić