

Montenegro: Round table on minority rights

On December 13-14 2007, a coalition of 4 NGOs organized a round table on the theme of "Minority rights in the new legal environment" following the adoption of the new constitution.

Presentations on the mid-term results of the Minority rights: law and practice in Montenegro project were followed by discussions on topics including minority rights in relation to international standards, the constitutional protection of minority rights, the role of the ombudsman and NGOs and the new government strategy for MRP.

For further information: Svetlana Racanovic